The said message was then sent to the Senate.

Mr. Brewer, from the committee on printing, delivered the following report.

The joint committee on the public printing, report;—That compliance with the provisions of the act passed at the last session, they have contracted with William Mc-Neir, to execute the printing which may be required by the Senate, and with Jeremiah Hughes, to execute the printing of the Laws and such work as may be required by the House of Delegates for the ensuing year.

The terms on which they have contracted with them respectively, are the same with those on which the prin-
